

I got a call from the wife of somebody that I dearly loved .Saying he just tried to kill himself and wanted me to help. I said NO. I believe that to save his life I must refuse to help in anyway. Sometimes helping can save a life, but sometimes it can do more harm than good .With a life in your hands it is always hard to know what to do .But I believed to save his life I must say no. thank God, it worked

Barry Wyatt Jr.